

MERRY CHRISTMAS

FROM THE BEAUCHAMP'S

'Tis the Season For Cake!

Dear Friends & Family,
We wanted to take this opportunity to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. This has been quite a year for our little family. We rung in the New Year together with popcorn, ice cream and Dick Clark. Tom's 30th day was in late January, where we discovered Jamie has an addiction to cake, which grew worse with Candy's 27th birthday in early March. In July, we got very special news... we are expecting a PINK addition to our family in early February 2003. By the time Jamie's 2nd birthday came around in mid-October, he knew very well all about cake and what to do with it.

Tom resigned from his sales manager job in September and opened up LAN's Edge in Northcross Mall here in Austin. This has been a long time dream of his. It's a computer gaming center; basically a "nightclub for geeks". Candy still works part time in finance and customer service for Luv Homes. Jamie has been a lucky little guy this year, his Mi-Mi and Aunt Gi-Gi watched him, so he has avoided daycare all-together.

We hope you all have a wonderful New Year and a very Merry Christmas.

Tom, Candy, Jamie & baby girl due 2/5/03
